The no longer conceal their bitter disappointment and mortification, and the lamentations of the party presses were long, deep, and agonising.

But the Whig party has an enemy to contend with, whose custom it has never been to abandon hope. "Nil desperandum" is the watchword under which they have so long succeeded in the practice of their juggling delusions. Despair has not get taken possession of them. The retention of their "expiring places," is worth another and a desperate effort, and they manifest a determination to make it. - How vain! how utterly juble will be the attempt : The People have not round themselves from their slumbers, in which their liberties were well nigh wrested from them, to be soon again lulled into such dangerous repose. Their gen erous and confiding spirit has not been so long abused and insulted and trampled upon, without teaching them a lesson which the enemies administered to the People in time past, have lost their potency. The cry of Federalist! Federalist! Federalist! no longer deludes. The shallow artifice is exposed. The Hartford Convention bugbear no more terrifies. The People have rent asunder the well by which the bold invaders of their liberties for a while succeeded an blinding them. The old War cries of the Loco foces "Dawn with the Aristocracy"

"Down with the Bank" " Down with monop olies" "Down with credit" are now fruitlessly echoed. Is has become as palpable as the sun at noon-day that they were invented but to avert the eyes of the People from the unprincipled usurpations of the inventors.

The reign of oppression is over. The dynasty of sorruption is at an end. The spirit of liberty is alive within the bosoms of the People arybecuthat spirit shall be darkened, the enemies of the Consutation may make a successful rally.

NEW AND VALUABLE SCHOOL

BOOK!
THE attention of School Committees, Tenchers and Parents, is invited to the examination of the Jovestie Realier, a selection of easy Reading Lessons, by a Teacher, a new edition of which, revised and corrected, we have just published. A is believed that the book is one which has been very much marked in an account. Ty much wanted in our common schools, and indeed it was compiled at the request of many of our best Teachers. The compiler is a gentleman of known abilities, and long experience in his profession. The pieces in this book, are chiefly selected from popular works designed for youth, and it is helieved, will have a healthy moral influence in those schools in which it is adopted. The book comes at a very low price and has been adopted in a great many Schools with decided approbation, and having been stereotyped, is tree from the danger of having any alterations made full, which is ne greatest trouble with all school hooks. Those connected with schools, or interested in any manner, are requested to call and examine it. SMITH & FENNO, 17 West Market Square.
